

Inclusive Entrepreneurial Development

Entrepreneurship presents powerful opportunities: to take ownership of your future, to achieve financial freedom, to build a dream, to create jobs, and more.

At The Mill, we believe that our whole community benefits when we increase access to those opportunities—when we open the door a little wider. ReBoot offers people in underserved populations six weeks of hands-on, personalized entrepreneurial training, in the comfort of a small cohort of similar peers. Sessions are offered on a rotating basis and tailored to groups such as veterans, women re-entering the workforce, and individuals who have been formerly incarcerated.

Your sponsorship allows The Mill to lower barriers to the startup ecosystem and help diverse new founders find community, support, and success. Your sponsorship will:

- Help diverse citizens join the innovation economy and earn higher wages
- Position your organization as a progressive leader committed to equity
- Pave new pathways to self-determination and independence for underrepresented entrepreneurs

Thank you for your consideration and support.

What Our Participants Say

"Thank you so much. I really enjoyed doing this. It gave me the confidence boost I needed to really get this rolling and start working on my other business ideas as well. It has been an amazing opportunity."

"Being part of your ReBoot Program has me doing more research on things I need and want to know about what I want to do, and reaching out to connections I now have, for answers I need."

"The program is very helpful! Everyone involved was kind and caring and easy to speak with."

Building on Local Success

Our community is filled with great organizations who work with underserved populations every day. We leverage their know-how and their work to identify candidates who will succeed in ReBoot, to set realistic goals, and to fill gaps. We recognize that partnerships with great organizations like New Leaf-New Life and Courage to Change, among others, are key to our success!

The Mill is the heart of southern Indiana's startup ecosystem and its largest coworking space. Our programs help accelerate innovative ideas and technologies into viable startups.
